The instant office action is directed to 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph rejection made by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences under 37 CFR 1.196(b) (1997).

The proposed claims 23 and 24 will not be entered or considered since they are not official claims.

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claim 22 is rejected since it contains new matter. The recited limitation, selecting said concentration to provide a selected value of said electrical conductivity, constitutes new matter. Said limitation does not have support in the originally filed specification and appellant failed to provide any support for it.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-5, 8, 9, 11-19, 21 and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1 and 22 recite three steps, providing a solvent and a polymer, mixing said solvent and said polymer to form a solution and selecting a concentration to obtain an electrical conductivity. However, said solution is electrically non-conductive absent further steps such as doping and drying. The recited "when converted to said electrically conductive polymer” has little probative value since it is an intended use and not a part of the limitation in the claimed method. Thus, claims are indefinite.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 22 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Jonas et al (US 4,902,573).

The instant claim is further rejected since Jonas et al teach the instant invention at col. 5, lines 16-41, and the instantly recited “selecting said concentration to provide a selected value of said conductivity” encompasses any value of concentration and conductivity thereof. Thus, the instant invention lacks novelty.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
